

The Oracle's Vault card features a large, golden sphinx with a blue and gold striped nemes, standing in front of a massive, ancient stone structure. Two tall, thin obelisks flank the sphinx. The scene is set against a hazy, orange-tinted sky, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The card's title, "Oracle's Vault", is at the top, and the number "4" is in the top right corner. The card's type, "Artifact", is at the bottom, and the number "4" is in the bottom right corner. The card's text, written in a stylized font, reads: "2, ♠: Exile the top card of your library. Until end of turn, you may play that card. Put a brick counter on Oracle's Vault. ♠: Exile the top card of your library. Until end of turn, you may play that card without paying its mana cost. Activate only if there are three or more brick counters on Oracle's Vault." The card is framed by a decorative border.

Oracle's Vault 4
