The image shows a Magic: The Gathering card for 'Butcher Ghou'. The card has a light blue border. At the top, the name 'Butcher Ghou' is written in a bold, black, serif font. To the right of the name is a mana cost of 1 black mana, represented by a black circle with a white skull symbol. Below the name and mana cost is a large illustration of the creature. The creature is a large, pale, zombie-like being with a skull for a head, multiple arms, and is covered in blood and gore. It is holding a severed head in one hand and a sword in another. In the background, there are dark, twisted trees and a small, dark building with a pointed roof. Below the illustration, the card type 'Creature — Zombie' is written in a bold, black, serif font. To the right of the card type is a small icon of a black circle with a white skull symbol. Below the card type is the creature's abilities, written in a black, serif font: 'Undying (When this creature dies, if it had no +1/+1 counters on it, return it to the battlefield under its owner's control with a +1/+1 counter on it.)'. Below the abilities is the creature's power and toughness, written in a black, serif font: '1/1'. At the bottom left of the card, the text '© 2009 Wizards of the Coast' is visible. At the bottom right, the text 'ILLUSTRATION BY CHRISTOPHER MOELLER' is visible.

Butcher Ghoul 1

The illustration depicts a large, pale, zombie-like creature with a skull for a head and multiple arms. One arm is raised, holding a flaming torch. Another arm is extended forward, holding a severed head. The creature is bound by chains. In the background, there are dark, gnarled trees and a small, dark building with a pointed roof. Two other figures, possibly zombies or soldiers, are visible in the background.
