Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249

Wild Griffin 2W

Creature — Griffin

Flying

Farmers typically keep their flocks at thirteen sheep—one to distract the griffins while they take the other twelve to market.

Matt Cavotta

2/2

™ & © 1993–2010 Wizards of the Coast LLC 40/249